

Transcription of report by doctors 26th December 1788. MED/16/1/14

Kew House, Dec. 26. 1788.

His Majesty was yesterday in the afternoon less calm, had an indifferent night, & is calm this morning. – His Legs, which appeared last night by accident during his agitations, are this morning in a good state.

G Baker

T. Gisborne

F. Willis.